AGENCY EOC OFFICER

2. Inform the complainant that they have 300 days to file a charge with an outside Agency.
3. Ask basic questions to ascertain the general nature of the complaint.
4. The initial investigation should begin immediately, but no later than three (3) working days from the receipt of the complaint. Collect all relevant information from the complainant to determine whether the complaint is based upon the definition of sexual harassment. If there is sufficient information to indicate that a valid complaint has been made, PROCEED TO STEP 6.
5. If there is not sufficient information, the PROCEDURE ENDS HERE. Explain the reasons for ending the procedure to the complainant. File a report containing the name, date, description of complaint, and reason for concluding that there is insufficient information to proceed. This should be done within ten (10) days of receipt of the complaint. Remind the complainant of their right to file an external complaint.
6. Determine the scope of the investigation, i.e., who to contact for information, what questions to ask, what documents to request, and the order in which interviewing will be conducted.
7. Proceed with the investigation, to ascertain validity of the allegations made in the complaint.
